SUMMER WINES

Sparkling Wine & Champagne – at fizzes discounts!

Summer is a time for entertaining – so here's a bunch of fizzes, all with 15% off by the dozen, including a couple of pinks for outdoor entertainment this summer.

Floriano Cinti, Pignoletto Frizzante, Colli Bolognesi, Italy, NV, 13%

Bottle £11.95 Case with 15% discount £121.89
Code CIN1NV

Pignoletto is the name of the delicious sparkling wine made in the foothills of the Apennines south and south-west of Bologna. From the Grechetto Gentile grape, with the fizz produced in the same way as Prosecco, i.e. in a closed tank, it's delightfully sparkly. For entertainment value, accompany the glass by singing loudly to the tune of O Sole Mio (the "Just one Cornetto" ditty)

"Here's Pignoletto, Give it to me,
Delicious sparkler, of Italy
Gently frizzante, it's made for fun
Buy Pignoletto at Stone, Vine & Sun!"

Pull the cork with a corkscrew and away you go...foamy, perfectly dry and citrusy, with accents of pears and green apple. Creamy, rounded and with a crisp appley finish, this makes a perfect summery fizz. Now-2019

Diamant de Loire, Crémant de Loire, Brut, France, NV, 12.5%

Bottle £12.75 Case with 15% discount £130.05
Code DIA1NV

New to our list this summer: if you are seeking an easy-drinking, light, perfectly clean and fresh fizz, then look no further. Sparkling wine from Chenin Blanc and Chardonnay has been produced in Saumur in the same way as Champagne (i.e. with a secondary fermentation in the bottle to create the fizz) since the early nineteenth century.

Fine mousse. Ripe, gently appley fruit, lightly creamy, with a little structure too. Easy to like, and so much classier than a lot of Prosecco. Now-2019

Drusian, Rose Mari, Spumante Rosato, Extra Dry, Italy, NV, 12%

Bottle £15.50 Case with 15% discount £158.10
Code DRU5NV

From Pinot Noir grown in the cool hills of Alto Adige and made in the same way as Prosecco (i.e. in a closed tank).

A gently fizzy, very pale pink glass of red fruit – wild strawberries. Very lightly savoury, showing true Pinot character, this makes a perfect aperitif, and a bottle vanishes very quickly indeed. Now-2019

Domaine des Dieux, Claudia, Méthode Cap Classique, Brut, South Africa, 2010, 12%

Bottle £17.95 Case with 15% off £183.09
Code DDD4NV

From 81% Chardonnay and 19% Pinot, made in the Champagne method, given 40 months on its lees, and one of the best New World fizzes we have tried in years: no surprise this won a Gold medal in the prestigious Champagne & Sparkling Wine World Championship, and was recently described in February's Decanter magazine as "complex MCC fizz".

Soft mousse; and then yeasty, creamy and complex. Decent body and very persistent. So much better than a lot of cheap Champagne! Now-2019

Serge Mathieu, Champagne, Rosé, Brut, NV, 12%

Bottle £31.50 Case with 15% discount £359.10
Code MAT5NV

From Avirey-Lingey, at the south-west end of the Bar-sur-Aube: here it's warmer than around Reims, and this offers perfect conditions for the Pinot Noir grape, which also thrives on the calcareous marls. From 90% Pinot Noir and 10% Chardonnay, with a minimum of two years ageing, this is always made in a dry style, so is perfectly suited to drinking as an aperitif or with food such as salmon.

Salmon pink. Mildly yeasty aromas, followed by bright and intense red fruit, reminiscent of strawberries and cream. Now-2019

Fizz for Berries

Michele Taliano, Birbet, Italy, NV, 5.5%

Bottle £9.25 Case with 15% discount £94.35
Code TAN916

This frothy red is a speciality of Piedmont, made like a sparkling Moscato, but from the red Brachetto grape. With about 110 grams of residual sugar, this is very sweet, but with refreshing red-fruited bite too. Chill it down and drink it with strawberries, raspberries or summer pudding - or with light cake. This frivolous fizz always wins friends when we show it at tastings. Drink this year

Light and Bright Whites

All in the bloom of youth, four Sauvignon Blancs and three other crisp whites.

Apaltagua, Sauvignon Blanc Reserva, San Antonio, Chile, 2017, 13% [Screwcap]

Bottle £8.95 Case with 10% discount £96.66
Code APA617

From rolling hills, just 12 kilometres from the cool Pacific, just south of Casablanca. Brilliant value, combining cool climate grassiness and sense of nettles with elderflower aromatics and bright fruit. Now-2019

Domaine Laballe, Sables Fauves, IGP Les Landes, France, 2017, 11.5% [Screwcap]

Bottle £9.95 Case with 10% discount £107.46
Code LAB117

The Sables Fauves is a terroir on the edge of the forest of Les Landes. From about 50% Gros Manseng and 30% Ugni Blanc with 10% each of Sauvignon Blanc and Colombard, this is a stimulating wine, delivering both great freshness and intense fruit. Zingy attack dominated by passionfruit and guava, the juicy palate offers bright fruit, good texture and a distinctive salinity. A perfect summer aperitif; and an excellent accompaniment to sushi or simply cooked white fish. Now-2019

Cape Atlantic Sauvignon Blanc, Western Cape, South Africa, 2017, 13.5% [Screwcap]

Bottle £9.95 Case with 10% discount £107.46
Code CED617

Although there is no mention on the label, this wine is from the young Sauvignon parcels, 3,000 feet up at Cederberg, plus some fruit from the Ghost Corner vineyards at cool and windy Elim, near the southernmost point of Africa. It's a real Kiwi challenger in its intensity.

Crisp and precise, showing gooseberry Sauvignon fruit and grassiness with a mineral bite. Now-2019

Errazuriz, Sauvignon Blanc, Aconcagua Costa, Chile, 2016, 13% [Screwcap]

Bottle £11.95 Case with 10% discount £129.06
Code ERR416

Just the second vintage we have shipped of this superb Chilean SB: the previous vintage was a huge hit with our customers and this is just as good. Dazzling aromas of passion fruit and elderflower. Deliciously open and exotic, showing enticing white peach and guava notes, this is such a classy Sauvignon, excitingly bright and with a splendid finish. Now-early 2019

Silent Noise, Chardonnay, Adelaide Hills, Australia, 2017, 13% [Screwcap]

Bottle £14.50 Case with 10% discount £156.60
Code SIL117

Australian Chardonnay, but not as it used to be...from grapes sourced in the cool Adelaide Hills the other side of Adelaide, this is very much in the modern Aussie idiom, almost Chablis-like in freshness and purity. Pale and clear. All barrel fermented, half in new oak, but it's not an "oaky" wine, rather a streamlined, lightly creamy example, lemony and bright. Perfect summer Chardonnay. Now-2020

Domaine Fourrey, Chablis, France, 2016, 12.5%

Bottle £15.50 Case with 10% discount £167.40
Code FRR116

This showed so well at our Chardomaniac-Pinotpath day in London last month: it has opened out beautifully, offering ripe, almost lightly honeyed scents, and then completely consistent flavours of citrus and dairy, with good weight too. From a brother and sister team in Milly, this offers classic summer drinking. Now-2021

Cherrier Père et fils, Sancerre, France, 2016, 13.5%

Bottle £15.50 Case with 10% discount £167.40
Code ROS116

Half bottle £7.95 Case (12 x 37.5cl.) with 10% discount £85.86
Code ROS216

This is drinking beautifully now, a perfectly poised and elegant Loire Sauvignon Blanc; an example as good as this justifies Sancerre's continuing hold on British drinkers. 2016 was a classic Loire vintage: ripe lemon and grapefruit on the palate, nicely weighted; and equally as good with white fish or light chicken dishes as on its own. Now-2019

Light & Bright Whites Dozen
£127.44 Code LB18

A mixed case of two bottles of each of the first six wines on this page, with a discount of 10%

Peachy Whites

Viognier is the grape best-known for showing peach and apricot flavours, but plenty of other Mediterranean grapes show stone fruit too, from Grenache Blanc and Roussanne to Vermentino and Falanghina. These make lovely summer drinking, either as aperitifs or to accompany full-flavoured seafood dishes, especially shellfish.

La Combe Saint-Paul, Vermentino, IGP Pays d'Oc, France, 2017, 13%

Bottle £8.95 Case with 10% discount £96.66
Code CSP217

Vermentino (Rolle in Provence) seems perfectly suited to Mediterranean conditions, from the shores of Tuscany to the Languedoc. A really open, stone fruited attack gives way to a more gentle, pine-scented, well-textured mid-palate. Fruity but finishes dry - a fine aperitif wine. Now-2019

La Colinas del Ebro, Garnatxa Blanca, Terra Alta, Spain, 2017, 14%

Bottle £9.25 Case with 10% discount £99.90
Code CDE717

This is the fourth vintage we have shipped of this 100% white Grenache from clay/limestone vineyards about 500 metres up (Terra Alta = highlands) in Catalonia. Light air of stone fruit and herbs. More punch on the palate, showing pink grapefruit and white peach, some weight and a stony freshness. Good value - this would cost more if from the Rhône. Now-2019

Carinae, Viognier, Mendoza, Argentina, 2017, 13.5%

Bottle £12.50 Case with 10% discount £135.00
Code CAE717

There's very good Viognier coming out of Argentina now: and the grape is much better suited to the heat (in all but the highest vineyards) than Chardonnay or Sauvignon Blanc. From 15 year old vines, this is a well-balanced example, showing a heady mix of jasmine, lime, stone fruit and grapey (Muscat-like) flavours. Well-textured but with crisp bite, this makes a lovely aperitif but is equally at home with spicy food (for example a Goan fish curry). Now-2019

Filadoro, Beneventano Falanghina IGT, Italy, 2016, 12.5%

Bottle £12.75 Case with 10% discount £137.70
Code FIM116

Benevento is one of the sub-regions of Irpinia, with vineyards at around 500 metres of altitude about 50 kms inland from Naples: Falanghina is one of the ancient grape varieties of the region. A full flavoured, well-textured mouthful of pure fresh apricots. Fresh and perfumed, but with excellent substance and a bright finish. A nice aperitif or to accompany grilled fish or prawns. Now-2019

Blankbottle, Moment of Silence, Wellington, South Africa, 2017, 14%

Bottle £16.95 Case with 10% discount £183.06
Code BB0117

Moment of Silence (or MoS for short) is always the best value wine in Pieter Walser's eclectic zoo of mad and bad blends. Chenin Blanc from four different sites, plus Grenache Blanc and Viognier, barrel-fermented and aged on the lees for a year. Bold, full-flavoured and concentrated, intensely stone-fruited with cream and nuts. Now-2020

Domaine Depeyre, Symphonie, IGP Côtes Catalanes, France, 2015, 14.5%

Bottle £17.50 Case with 10% discount £189.00
Code DEP615

Brilliant wine, concentrated, subtly fruited, complex and stony / mineral, Symphonie is a blend of 2/3 Grenache Gris and 1/3 Grenache Blanc grown in a classic argilo-calcaire terroir near Vingrau in Roussillon and just rounded by some aging in demi-muids, 600 litre barrels. Understated stone fruit and hints of herbs. Satiny finesse. Lightly honeyed but finishes bone dry. Now-2019

All wines bought by the whole dozen and preselected mixed cases in this list are discounted by at least 10% until the end of July

Blooming Rosés

Some advice: those who prefer a very pale, understated style should pick the Begude Pinot Rosé, or Quatre Tours; those who like a rosé with plenty of fruit, vigour and flavour should look at the Météore, Ribotte and Des Dieux; the rest are good all-rounders!

Le Petit Pont, Rosé, IGP Pays d'Oc, 2017, 12.5% [Screwcap]

Bottle £7.95 Case with 10% discount £85.86
Code PEP517

The latest vintage of this best-selling rosé, from Grenache and Cinsaut, grown near Beziers in the Languedoc, but crafted in the Provençale style, pale coloured and refreshing. Light scent of berries. A juicy mouthful of strawberry and cranberry fruit, with a crisp finish. Nothing complicated, just a well-made, dry rosé perfect for regular consumption. Now-2019

Preignes Le Vieux, Reserve Rosé, IGP Coteaux de Béziers, 2017, 12.5%

Bottle £8.95 Case with 10% discount £96.66
Code PRF517

A blend of Cinsault, Grenache and Syrah. Very pale salmon pink. Red fruited aromas and a hint of peach. Raspberry and strawberry, well rounded and charming, this is a step up from the wine above. Now-2019

La Salette, Côtes de Gascogne Rosé, 2017, 12.5% [Screwcap]

Bottle £8.95 Case with 10% discount £96.66
Code SAL517

The previous vintage of this lively rosé from the south-west was an unexpected hit last summer. It's made from a blend of 90% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc; the latter brings a little perfume. Pale, attractive salmon pink. Light and fresh, very much toward the white wine end of the spectrum. Subtle sense of raspberries. Pretty, understated and refreshing. Now-2019

Château La Grave, Minervois, Rosé Expression, 2017, 13%

Bottle £9.95 Case with 10% discount £107.46
Code GRV417

From halves of Syrah and Grenache grown near the Aude river, this unfailingly delivers splendid ripeness and intensity. Pale pink. Berried aromas leaps out of the glass. Strawberry and raspberry dominates the palate and a pleasing peach accent too. Good purity of fruit and lively acidity make for a moreish finish. Now-2019

Domaine Begude, Pinot Rosé, IGP Pays d'Oc, 2017, 12.5% [Screwcap]

Bottle £11.50 Case with 10% discount £124.20
Code BEG517

An organically farmed rosé – which is new to our list this year. Clear pale salmon pink hue. Bright perfume cranberries and a hint of blood orange. Light on its feet, refreshing, with a delicate sense of peach skin and apricot. Now-2019

Domaine du Météore, Faugères Rosé, Les Cassiopéides, 2017, 14%

Bottle £11.50 Case with 10% discount £124.20
Code MET517

From Syrah, Cinsault and Grenache, the organically certified Météore rosé (named, as all the wines from this estate, after meteor showers) expresses the pure schist soils of Faugères. More colour and concentration than in previous vintages - a mouthful of strawberry and peach with enough substance to drink with strongly flavoured food; perfect for a barbecue. Now-2019

Les Quatre Tours, Coteaux d'Aix en Provence Rosé, Signature, 2017, 13%

Bottle £11.95 Case with 10% discount £129.06
Code QUA517

Magnum £25.95 Case (6 x 150cl.) with 10% discount £140.13
Code QUA917

The characteristic Provençale blend of Grenache, Syrah and Cabernet Sauvignon from a small co-operative just north of Aix. Very pale - a transparent onion skin tint - generous fruit and restrained elegance: flavours of white peach, melon and berries, with satisfying weight and a fine dry finish. Now-2019

Blooming Rosés Case
£105.80 Code BR18

A mixed case of two bottles of each of the first six wines on these pages, with a discount of 10%

Cherrier et Fils, Sancerre Rosé, 2016, 14%

Bottle £15.95 Case with 10% discount £172.26
Code ROS316

The Cherrier family's rosé, from 100% Pinot Noir, is an example of that light and pure style so popular in Parisian bistros. As in Burgundy (just over the central hills to the east of Sancerre) 2016 was a superb vintage for Pinot, so this is especially ripe and delicious. Very pale salmon pink. Gentle cranberry and redcurrant scent. Bold strawberry fruit, fine and silky, before a dry, savoury finish. Brilliant Pinot rosé. Now-2019

Domaine de la Ribotte, Bandol Rosé, Cuvée Anaïs, 2017, 13.5%

Bottle £17.50 Case with 10% discount £189.00
Code RIB517

This is the fifth vintage we have shipped of this wonderful Bandol rosé, based on Mourvèdre, made by Laurence Desblache and her son Nicolas. The Jancis Robinson team tasted 125 rosés last summer, and Richard Hemming MW made the 2016 vintage of this the first of his top three picks "chosen for variety of style and price, not just score". He described it as "the classic Provence model, executed brilliantly, and fairly priced at under £20". It was, incidentally, the second highest scoring rosé of the 125, topped only by one priced at £70 a bottle!

Pale salmon robe. Amazing aromas of peach juice and pink grapefruit leap out of the glass; followed by delectable intensity of peach melba and cream. Really well-textured, with a characteristic long and mineral, even saline, finish. We have lost count of the number of customers who have told us that this wine is the best rosé they have ever tasted. (Note: not for people who want a rosé that doesn't taste of anything!) Now-2020

Domaine des Dieux, Petit Rosé, Hemel-en-Aarde, South Africa, 2017, 12.5%

Bottle £11.95 Case £136.23 Code DDD517

The team at Des Dieux wanted to make a rosé that was comparable to Provence styles: it's a Provençale style blend of about half Mourvèdre, a third Grenache with some Syrah, with a bit of barrel ageing. Bright and exciting scent, cherries and cream with hints of meadow herbs; and then delivers a juicy mouthful of macerated strawberries. It's a full-flavoured, dry rosé, a perfect accompaniment to Mediterranean food or a barbecue. Now-2019

Summer Reds

What is the definition of an ideal red for summer? Here is my shortlist: bright fruit; juiciness - including refreshing acidity; lowish to moderate alcohol, oak and tannin; in a light to medium body. The Australians have a great word for wines like these – “smashable”: liveliness and immediate appeal are vital, and the wines below deliver those qualities.

Valle Frio, Carmenère, Maule, Chile, 2016, 13.5%

Bottle £8.75 Case with 10% discount £94.50
Code FRI216

The Carmenère grape tends to show a mildly leafy, herbaceous note - it's related to Cabernet Franc - which gives balance to the characteristically ripe Chilean fruit. This wine is a bargain: it's so complete, classy, velvety and smart that you could pass it off as a much more expensive Bordeaux if you decanted it!). Black-fruited and aromatic, with excellent length. Now-2019

Montcharme Pinot Noir, IGP Pays d'Oc, France, 2016, 13% [Screwcap]

Bottle £9.25 Case with 10% discount £99.90
Code AGW716

Largely sourced from cool Limoux, crisp and classy, blended with some grapes from the plains with riper, sunnier fruit. Juicy palate, true to the grape, showing fresh cherries with a touch of vanilla. Now-2019

La Salette, Côtes de Gascogne Rouge, France, 2016, 12.5%

Bottle £9.25 Case with 10% discount £99.90
Code SAL616

This is a light red which one could easily serve slightly chilled as a refreshing drink with lunch (at just 12.5%) or with spicy food: the French would call it “frais”, fresh. It wouldn't be bad with plain roast chicken either. There's a sense of fresh ripe strawberries and raspberries, a gentle fragrance and minimal tannins. Very easy-drinking, from 40% of each of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot and 10% of each of Cabernet Franc and Tannat, it delivers simple, immediate pleasure. Now-2019

Lagneau, Beaujolais-Villages, France, 2015, 13%

Bottle £11.95 Case with 10% discount £129.06
Code LAG115

This is intense for a Beaujolais-Villages, displaying black-fruited perfume, and lots of juicy blackberry fruit over a firm backbone. Now-2019

“Mid to deep cherry with purple rim. Inviting aroma of lifted dark-red forest fruits. A little chewy on the palate, giving it texture but also suggesting it needs food or another 6 months in bottle. Depth and length and a more serious savoury quality than the other Beaujolais-Villages wines tasted so far. GV. 16/20”, Julia Harding MW, jancisrobinson.com, 17th August 2016.

Fiorano, Sangiovese, IGT Marche, Italy, 2016, 13%

Bottle £12.95 Case with 10% discount £139.86
Code FIO116

Having recently visited Fiorano, I now understand why the wines, from a beautiful amphitheatre of vineyards, are special. Paolo (formerly a dentist) and Paola (a research pharmacologist) take enormous pains over their organically farmed vines. The latest vintage of this Sangiovese is as stunning as ever, appealing to all who enjoy youthful and juicy reds. Bright red cherries to the fore, very ripe. Altogether lively, pure and supple; a fast-vanishing bottle. Now-2020

La Chapelle des Bois, Fleurie, Grand Pré, France, 2015, 13.5%

Bottle £13.25 Case with 10% discount £143.10
Code CHB115

Magnum £27.50 Case with 10% discount (6 x 150.cl) £148.50
Code CHB915

This splendid Cru Beaujolais is so consistent from vintage to vintage; only a little extra substance and ripeness indicates the low yields and heat of the vintage. Beautifully ripe and pretty berry and cherry flavours, with flesh and vivacity. Lay down the magnums for a future treat. Now-2021

Wilfrid Rousse, Chinon, Les Galuches,
France, 2015, 12.5%

Bottle £14.75 Case with 10% discount £159.30
Code ROT315

Loire Cabernet Franc is a definitive summer wine: perfumed, leafy and perfectly at home with ham and charcuterie. This is unquestionably the finest vintage we have tasted of this unoaked wine. It's stunning, from its glossy purple hue, via its perfume of black fruit and violets, to a dramatic heart of blackcurrant and black cherry flavours. It's juicy, crunchy and wholly artisanal in its expansive vitality. Now-2019

Barossa, Australia, 2017, 13.9%
[Screwcap]

Bottle £19.95 Case with 10% discount £215.46
Code TOM117

The Young Blood wines are made in a transparent, forward and oh-so-drinkable style to be enjoyed young, fermented in open vats with 30% whole bunch; and then 50% goes into tank and 50% into old French barrels. Lovely youthful clear ruby. This is deliciously vibrant and exciting. Bright raspberries and spiced cherries with just the right backing of tannin. Juicily stimulating. Perfect barbecue wine. Now-2021

Outstanding Southern Hemisphere Pinot Noir

We pride ourselves on our selection of the world's Pinot Noirs; and as Burgundy sadly has become more and more expensive it's obvious we also need to look outside France for quality. These two are outstanding. The first is becoming well-known, this latest vintage earning endorsement from Peter Richards MW, Chilean specialist and Chair of the Chilean panel at the Decanter World Wine Awards. The second is our sole agency in the UK and we are delighted that the wine has immediately won a rave review and inclusion in Matthew Jukes 2018 selection of 100 Best Australian Wines. Note that both Pinots Show just 13% alcohol, lower than most red Burgundies from recent hot summers. Anyone who loves Pinot should buy the mixed case – and then come back for more!

Errázuriz, Pinot Noir, Aconcagua Costa, Chile, 2016, 13%

Bottle £15.50 Case with 12.5% discount £162.75
Code ERR916

Is this the best £15 Pinot in the UK market? From vineyards on schist at Manzanar, just 12 kilometres from the cool Pacific; and now picked earlier for greater freshness, 2016 is the best vintage yet of this increasingly Burgundian and wholly enticing wine.

Pretty dark cherry hue. Pure, ripe berried perfume. Beautifully smooth and balanced, offering a light and fragrant mouthful of red and black cherries with minimal tannins. Perfectly poised and graceful. Now-2021

"The obsessive work of Errázuriz and Francisco Baettig in Aconcagua Costa has led to simply stellar Pinot Noir. Top-label Las Pizarras [Note: we have this at £70 a bottle] is sensational; this is a more affordable version but still offers outstanding value at this price. Piercing scents and fine, poised, classy flavour profile. Drink 2018-2022, 91/100"

Wickhams Road, Pinot Noir, Gippsland, Australia, 2017, 13% [Screwcap]

Bottle £19.50 Case with 12.5% discount £204.75
Code WIC617

Since 2011 Franco d'Anna at Hoddles Creek has managed an eight hectare vineyard, with vines now 17 years old, planted solely to Chardonnay and Pinot Noir in Gippsland. Gippsland is an up-and-coming coastal region east and south of Melbourne. The wines from this cool, free draining site are sold under Franco's Wickhams Road label.

Soft plum hue. Open, forward Pinot character: juicy, punchy and crunchy raspberry fruit, already enticingly tinged with hints of that appealing savouriness which is so food friendly (think fowl, veal, mushrooms). Hugely successful and delicious. Now-2022

"From the Hoddles Creek family, Wickhams Road is a remarkable wine and it has more vitality and friskiness than a Cirque de Soleil troupe of acrobats. I could swear that there is some whole bunch fruit here, bearing in mind the herbaceous notes which enliven the aromatics, but the tech sheet and web info say no. Either way, this is a stunning expression of the Pinot Noir grape and it is bursting with cherry, plum and hedgerow glamour and I cannot wait to introduce several hundred people to it at Australia House at my wine trade launch of this Report. I trust that they will all pogo with enthusiasm when this mystical elixir hits their receptors", Matthew Jukes, 100 best Australian Wines 2018/19.
